

Number of proteins in a function divided by number of all neural proteins in species

